

O R D E R

It is ORDERED that the following special requirements shall prevail for Pretrials before Judge W. B. Hand's Court:

1. Counsel shall confer and shall prepare a single proposed Pretrial Order in the form attached, which must be in the Court's hands at least one full week before the pretrial hearing. A fine of $20.00 per day will attach to each counsel for failure so to do.

2. Counsel shall consider and stipulate as to the following:

- A. Jurisdiction
- B. Propriety of parties, correctness of identity of legal entities, necessity for appointment of guardian ad litem, guardian, administrator, etc., and validity of appointment if already made, correctness of designation of party as partnership, corporation or individual d/b/a trade name.
- C. If the above be not agreed to, counsel shall certify the question to the Court for resolution at the conference.

3. Settlement. Prior to the Conference counsel will discuss settlement potential with the Court.

4. The proposed Pretrial Order shall contain:

- A. A comprehensive written statement of uncontested facts to be read to the jury,
- B. A written statement of contested issues that will explain to the Court and/or jury the parties' disputes, and

1. Whenever an alleged breach of contractual obligation is in issue, a statement of the act or omissions relied upon by the party or parties asserting such breach.
2. Whenever the meaning as interpretation of a contract or other writing is in issue, each party shall separately state all facts and circumstances relied upon which serve to aid in the interpretation.
3. Whenever duress, fraud or mistake is an issue, the facts and circumstances relied upon by the parties as constituting the claimed duress or fraud or mistake (see Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 9(b)) shall be specified with particularity.
4. Whenever a conspiracy is charged, the party contending same shall set forth the facts and circumstances relied upon as constituting the conspiracy, listing the names of all conspirators making up the conspiracy, together with a narrative of the testimony of such witnesses in regard to the facts of the conspiracy.

C. The Triable issue or issues.

D. An estimate of the number of trial days required.

E. A statement indicating whether the case is a jury or non-jury case. If a jury case, whether the jury trial is applicable to all aspects of the case or only to certain issues, which shall be specified.

In jury cases, counsel shall file with the Court, not later than the beginning of trial, copies of all proposed jury instructions and shall furnish opposing counsel a copy of same.)

F. A list of pending or anticipated law or motion matters

G. When a deposition is to be offered into evidence, and a party objects, a statement of the portions objected to, and the grounds therefor.

- H. Counsel shall list the names and addresses of all witnesses who shall or may be called and, as to experts, a narrative statement of his or her qualifications in sufficient form to be read to the jury by the party offering such witnesses. Any objections to the experts shall be separately set forth and the issue shall be decided at the Conference.
- I. ~~Whenever damages are claimed and are ascertainable~~ Whenever ~~damages are claimed and are ascertainable~~ of the ascertainable damages and shall so state them. No further testimony will be required to substantiate the amount thereof. The listing of such damages shall not constitute an agreement as to the recoverability of same unless so stated.
- J. Each party shall list all exhibits which are to be admitted. All exhibits to which there are objection shall be so designated. All exhibits to which there are objections, shall be noted and by whom the objection is made, setting forth the nature of the objection, and the authority supporting same. Failure to comply shall constitute a waiver of any such objection. Markers obtained from the Clerk shall be attached to all exhibits.
- K. Except for good cause shown, the Court will not permit the introduction of any exhibits unless they have been listed in the Pretrial Order, with the exception of exhibits to be used solely for the purpose of impeachment.

5. CAVEAT: Should a party or his counsel fail to appear at the Pretrial Conference and such failure is not otherwise satisfactorily explained to the Court, the cause shall: (a) stand dismissed for failure to prosecute, if such failure occurs on the part of the plaintiff; or (b) default judgment shall be entered if such failure occurs on the part of the defendant.

Failure to strictly comply with this Order in the form and under the terms contained herein, unless previously excused, shall result in the offending party being found in civil contempt, and such civil contempt shall continue from day to day until compliance with the Order. Failure to comply within a period of five (5) days thereafter, and explanation satisfactory to the Court not having been given and accepted, shall result in the cause being dismissed or default judgment being entered, whichever is appropriate.

6. The Pretrial Order when entered may be amended at any time on motion for good cause to avoid manifest injustice, and when entered shall constitute the final statement of the issues involved, govern the conduct of the trial, and shall constitute the basis for any relief afforded by the Court.
